HG
8963
M62
43

Contents and Index of Volume 26, 1945

STATISTICAL BULLETIN

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

CONTENTS

JANUARY PAGE

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the BULLETIN 1
Mortality Continues at Low Level in 1944 2
Military Deaths in 1944 6
Twenty Years' Progress in Child Health 9

FEBRUARY

The Average Size of American Families 1
Decline in Mortality Among Women in Wartime 3
Home Accident Fatalities Increase Among Preschool Children 5
Death Toll Highest in Winter in Both Hemispheres 7
Why Do People Kill Themselves? 9

MARCH

Nine Out of Ten American Babies Now Born to Native Parents 1
Health Conditions on the European Continent in 1944 3
Recent Progress in Cancer Control 6
The Geography of Mortality Improvement 9

APRIL

The Final Phase in the Conquest of Tuberculosis 1
Longevity of the American People in 1943 3
Mortality at Record Low in Industrial Population 6
England's Health Continues Favorable 8

MAY

The Chances of Remarriage for the Widowed and Divorced 1
Largest Wartime Increase in Births Among Young Parents 3
Marked Rise in Educational Level of the American People 4
The Conquest of Smallpox 7
Fatal Falls Off Ladders About the Home 9

JUNE

Age of American Military Leaders
1. The Navy 1
Medical Progress Advanced by Life Insurance 4
Early Marriages Most Frequent in the South 5
Fertility of American Women in Relation to Husband's Occupation 7
The Passing of Our Foreign-Born 9

JULY PAGE

Encouraging Trends in Cancer Mortality 1
Improvement in Mortality on the Home Front 3
Maternal Mortality Lowest Where Hospital Confinement is Most Frequent 6
Age of American Military Leaders
2. Marine Corps and Coast Guard 8

AUGUST

Dr. Dublin on Red Cross Mission to France 1
Age of American Military Leaders
3. The Army 2
Marriage and Educational Attainment 4
Longevity of Industrial Population at Peak as War Ends 6
Diphtheria Can Be Wiped Out 8

SEPTEMBER

The Influence of Marital Separations on the Birth Rate 1
Educational Selection in Marriage 3
Sex Differences in Mortality Trends 5
Hazardous Areas In and About the Home 8

OCTOBER

American Health Safely Weathers the War 1
Guarding Against Home Accidents 4
Reconversion for Better Health 6
The Conquest of Pneumonia 8

NOVEMBER

American Combat Losses in World War II 1
Complete Victory Over Tuberculosis in Sight 3
Fertility and Educational Level of Parents 6
American Homes Becoming Safer 8
Recent Publications of the Statistical Bureau 10

DECEMBER

Peace Brings More Marriages 1
Births and Deaths in 1945 4
Fatal Accidents in 1945 5
Hazards of Childbearing Sharply Reduced 7
Infant Mortality Declined to a Record Low During the War 9